Erect Memorial to Honor Dead Legion Commander

This memorial to Colonel Frederick Galbraith, Jr., former national commander of the American Legion, was unveiled in Cincinnati, Saturday as the principal event in that city's observance of Armistice Day.

Cabinet members and representatives from the allied embassies and legations were present, together with Ohio World war veterans, many of whom served under Galbraith.

Colonel Galbraith, elected to the Legion commandership at the Legion convention in September, 1920, was killed in an automobile accident June 9, 1921. He received the Distinguished Service Cross for extraordinary heroism in France. He also was awarded the French and Belgian Croix de Guerre and the French Legion D'Honneur.

COUNCIL CONVEYS TRACT FOR FISH STATION IN CITY

Portion of Upper Riverside Park Given Over for Erection of Building

PUBLIC MEETINGS TO BE HELD BEFORE BUDGET IS ADOPTED

City to Convert White Way Into Single Lamp Type

A TRACT of land in Riverside park on which a United States fisheries station will be erected was ordered conveyed to the government without a warranty deed by the common council Friday night, being one of the most important items of business transacted at the regular November meeting.

The council adjourned until Tuesday, November 20, when it was expected final action on adoption of the city budget would be taken.

The tract of land conveyed to the government lies at the north end of Riverside park. It was given over without restriction or condition for the erection of the fisheries station.

Hold Public Meetings

In view of the anticipated raise in the mill rate for taxation here this year, the council Friday night voted to hold public meetings on both the north and south side high school auditoriums at which the heads of various city department's will present their proposed budgets for the ensuing year. City officials expect to place in the minds of taxpayers a more definite idea relative to what each of the moneys appropriated is used for. Announcement of the date of the meetings was to be made later.

The white way system in the down town streets is to be revised by the use of the single lamp type, according to a measure adopted Friday night. Reports from field men of the various big electrical companies indicate that the single lamp unit is the preferred system in a majority of the cities today, and since an extension of the system here is already under way, the council deemed it economical to change over the entire system at this time.

Appropriation of $2,500 for this work was not included in the resolution passed, but some means of raising the money will be provided at the next meeting. It was explained that the difference in cost of maintenance of the single lamp unit would in time pay for the change of lights. It was agreed also that more light is yielded from the single lamp, as evidenced by the four sample lights now used on Fifth street and on Sixth and Main streets.

Order Bridge Plans

The city engineer Friday was requested to expedite the submission of plans for the construction of a new full width bridge over the La Crosse river. He was given authority to procure the services of a bridge engineer, if necessary, to hurry plans for the bridge. When completed, the bridge will accommodate double-track for street cars.

Steps toward providing additional parking space for automobiles were seen in the resolution passed directing the board of public works to

LEGION LEADER IN TRIBUTE TO FORMER CHIEF

CINCINNATI, O.—Frederick W. Galbraith, late commander of the American Legion, who was killed in an automobile accident in Indianapolis several years ago, was called "a martyr to patriotic service," by John Quinn, present national commander of the organization, in an address here Saturday. He was speaking at the dedication exercises of the Galbraith memorial.

Galbraith's later life was dedicated to legion principles, Commander Quinn said. "He would have said that legionism demanded hospitalization for our disabled comrades. He would have said that it demanded adjusted compensation for the millions whose economic disability has not yet been set right by the nation. He would have said that legionism demanded a keener appreciation of our patriotic rights and duties—which is Americanism."

To the American Legion is the charge that the needs and wants of the maimed and disabled, shall be cared for, the speaker declared.

SLAYER OF BADGER HOTEL MAN CAUGHT SATURDAY MORNING

Surrenders to Sheriff After Located Near Hazel Green; Came Back to See Family

DARLINGTON, Wis. — Monroe Rader, 34, broken in spirit and sorry to the point of distraction, is in the Lafayette county jail here.

The man who mortally wounded Elmer Ellsworth, sixty-year-old New Diggings, Wis., hotelkeeptr, last Sunday night, was taken into custody at 3:30 a. m. Saturday. He surrendered to Sheriff Charles Simmons at the mining shack of his wife's uncle, Owen Sullivan, three miles north of Hazel Green.

Extreme love for his wife and family brought Rader back to the country from which he fled seven days before. That same love pushed from his jumbled thoughts the desire to kill himself.

"Tangled clues that gradually were unravelled would have probably caught the man anyway, declared District Attorney J. J. Boyle of Lafayette county Saturday morning. The location of the slayer was disclosed at midnight Friday by Sullivan. Mrs. Rader and Leo Pifer, close friend of Rader, were leaving a Galena Falls hotel at that hour on the way to take a train to Chicago to find Rader's "body" and bring it to Cuba City for burial. They believed firmly that Rader would carry out the threats in letters received from him at Chicago.

NOT GUILTY PLEA OF MRS. SCHAUDE TO MURDER CHARGE

WHITEWATER, Wis.—Mrs. Myrtie Schaude, Whitewater widow who is said to have confessed to poisoning her husband and attempting to kill her four children by the same method, was arraigned here early Saturday before Justice Charles Williams, on a charge of first degree murder for killing her husband Edward Schaude. Attorneys Luce and Wilson for Mrs. Schaude entered a plea of not guilty to the charge of murder.

TWO BOYS HELD ON AUTO THEFT CHARGES HERE

Police Believe Lid Has Been Clamped on Mysterious Car Thefts Here

NAMES BEING WITHHELD UNTIL ARRAIGNMENT IN COUNTY COURT

Believe They Have Stolen More Cars Than They Admit

POLICE believe they have solved to some extent the mystery of numerous car thefts in the city for the past month with the arrest Thursday night of two youths, who have admitted responsibility for the theft of two cars here. The names of the boys are being withheld until some disposition of their case has been made in county court.

The boys, one twelve and the other thirteen years of age, admitted to police officials that they were both a party to the theft of two cars owned by H. J. Hirshheimer, from the rear of the La Crosse Plow company.

It was the opinion of Chief John B. Webber Saturday morning that the boys have stolen more cars than those to which they have confessed.

Apprehension of the boys was made Thursday night, when one of them was reported to have been seen taking the key from a Ford car parked in front of St. Mary's school on South Seventh street. When brought to Central station, a large bunch of auto keys was found about the person of one, indicating that they had stolen keys from other machines about town.

The boys will be arraigned in county court, possibly Saturday afternoon, Chief Webber said.

Throughout the past month cars have been stolen from parking places, driven around and abandoned in remote sections of the city. Police have been unable to trace the thefts until one of the boys held at the station was seen taking a key from a car.

MUSCODA STATION OF MILWAUKEE ROAD DESTROYED BY FIRE

PRAIRIE DU CHIEN, Wis.—Fire of unknown origin Friday destroyed the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railroad station, a carload of potatoes and a part of a carload of poultry, at Muscoda, according to advices received here Saturday. A carload of cheese which was on the track near the station was also damaged. Express and baggage in the station was also destroyed.

GASOLINE DROPS TWO CENTS HERE

A drop of two cents a gallon in the price of gasoline was announced Saturday morning by the Standard Oil company of Indiana at the Chicago office and independent companies in the middle west promptly followed the Standard reduction and as a result prices are getting back to the pre-war level. This means that at the old price of nine gallons, ten will be allowed to trickle into the tank and motorists will be that much happier. Prices now range from 15.2 to 22.5 for the various grades.

NO RIGHT TO KEEP HIM IS DUTCH STAND

Departure of Frederick William Follows Closely After Protest from Allied Governments

BAVARIA UNDER STATE OF SIEGE AS HITLER COUP IS SUPPRESSED

Ludendorff Freed Under Parole; Hitler Escapes After Arrest on Friday

PARIS.—By The Associated Press.—The entente allies will insist vigorously at Berlin that Former Crown Prince Frederick William, who entered Germany Saturday from his exile in Holland, be expelled from German territory, it was said in official circles. France and Great Britain have exchanged views during the last few days on this subject, it is stated, and are in entire accord regarding it.

BERLIN.—It is rumored from Munich that General Ludendorff committed suicide immediately upon being paroled after his arrest in connection with the abortive putsch in Munich.

There was no verification of the rumor from any source, but Ludendorff's friends here say they are prepared for such a sequel to his failure and that the action would be wholly in conformity with the military code of honor as understood by the general.

AMSTERDAM.—By The Associated Press.—The Dutch government officially announced Saturday that Former Crown Prince Frederick William of Germany crossed the German frontier earlier in the morning enroute to Oels, Upper Silesia. The estate to which he recently expressed a desire to retire is located at Oels.

The Exchange Telegraph account of the former crown prince's departure says he left the Island of Wieringen at 4:30 o'clock. Two big motor cars awaited him in the village of Eoijcksluis on the main land. Frederick William entered the first car, accompanied by Burgomaster Kolf or Wieringen, while his luggage was loaded in the second car. Both cars drove off at daybreak.

Departure Declared Legal

Before leaving Wieringen Frederick William addressed a letter to the population expressing his regret at being unable to say good-bye and expressing gratitude for the friends he had made during his years of exile and for the hospitality shown him.

It is considered here that the Dutch government had no right to detain him in Holland, that his departure is quite legal and that it will not involve Holland in any diplomatic conflict. It none the less has caused a sensation.

Allies Protest Return

PARIS.—By The Associated Press.—A note signed by Premier Poincare as president of the allied council of ambassadors, was delivered to the German charge d'affaires Friday, protesting against the return of Former Crown Prince Frederick William of Germany.

Gets Permission from Berlin

THE HAGUE.—It is officially stated that both the Dutch and German governments granted former Crown Prince Frederick William permission to return to Germany.

It would appear that the crown prince's resolution to leave was taken after the German government had notified him, a few weeks ago, that his return would not be opposed, and after he was provided, as a result, with the necessary German passports.

May Transfer Kaiser

PARIS.—By The Associated Press.—Holland may not be regarded as a sufficiently secure retreat for former Emperor William of Germany in view of the flight of the former crown prince, it was said today at the foreign office and a second St. Helena may be chosen for him.

Proclaim State of Siege

BERLIN. — By The Associated Press.—The government of Premier Von Knilling is in complete control of Munich, according to latest reports from the Bavarian capital. Quiet has been restored in the city. A state of siege has been proclaimed.

The Tageblatt says that a coup similar to that at Munich was attempted at Ausburg, Bavaria, but that the police immediately arrested and disarmed all insurgents.

At Nuremburg also the police disarmed the nationalists. The burgo-

REPARATIONS INQUIRY OF NO AVAIL IF FRANCE INSISTS ON LIMITING SCOPE U. S. OPINION

France Informed That Restrictions Would Nullify Washington's Plan to Bring About Adjustment; London Not So Pessimistic as to Possibilities of Solution

WASHINGTON.—Restrictions insisted upon by France on the proposed inquiry by experts into Germany's economic condition would render such an effort to solve the reparations problem useless and futile, in the opinion of the Washington government.

This decision was reached late Friday after the situation had been discussed during the day by President Coolidge with his cabinet and Ambassador Jusserand at a conference with Secretary Hughes had explained in detail the nature of the French limitations.

The result was that word was sent to Premier Poincare, through the ambassador that his determination to restrict the scope of the inquiry, administration officials here, believe would frustrate the object of the United States in offering the allies aid in bringing about an adjustment.

What the future might bring forth, officials here declined to predict.

London More Optimistic

LONDON. — By the Associated Press.—Although the press reports from Washington regarding the prospect of a reparation inquiry conducted within a limited scope of the French proposal are by no means sanguine, British official circles in London do not consider the time has yet arrived to abandon hopes of an allied conference including America.

In competent quarters it is asserted that Great Britain will continue to apply herself to the problem of reaching a basis on which a conference satisfactory to the United States can be held until every possible avenue is explored.

Paris Has Compromise

By DAVID LAWRENCE
(Copyright 1923.)

WASHINGTON. — Premier Poincare has worked out a compromise which he hopes will prove acceptable to the United States government. In a long communication which expresses in detail the reasons for the French government's attitude, the United States is asked to agree that the proposed commission of experts shall examine Germany's capacity to pay for the next six years, that is from January, 1924, through December, 1930.

When the six year period has passed, Premier Poincare suggests that the commission of experts or another body similar to it shall resume sittings and inquire then into the capacity of Germany to pay in subsequent years. M. Poincare arrived at the six year idea by a close study of the provisions of the Versailles treaty and particularly this provision:

"On the following questions unanimity (of the reparations commission) is required: Any postponement, total or partial, beyond the end of 1930, of the payment of installments falling dude between May 1, 1921, and the end of 1926 inclusive."

Won't Go Beyond 1930

This means that the French government feels it cannot at this time go beyond 1930 and yet comply with the provisions of the treaty requiring unanimous consent of all the allied and associated powers interested in reparations. Furthermore, Premier Poincare contends that if an inquiry can be made into the capacity of Germany to pay during the present disturbed period and the reconstruction era that is hoped to follow any settling down of affairs in Germany in the next few years, it will not be a difficult matter to assess German capacity for payment in the normal years which might follow the six year period.

The French premier feels that his reservation is not unreasonable because no human mind can calculate Germany's capacity for payment over a period of fifty or a hundred years for no one knows the recuperative power of sixty or seventy millions of people especially when the German birth rate is increasing rapidly.

Faces Trouble at Home

M. Poincare faces an internal political situation which has been no small factor in his present course. On November 13th—which is only next week—the French chamber of deputies reconvenes. M. Poincare must go before that body and explain what he is doing. He wants to be able to say he has not entered into any arrangement committing France to anything beyond 1930. He would not venture to take responsibility for any longer time.

As for the viewpoint of the American government, it will not, of course, be disclosed until after the French view point has been thoroughly examined. But the decision before President Coolidge and Secretary Hughes is a critical one. To say that nothing could be accomplished in an inquiry which is to determine German capacity for payment in the next six years could be to break down the parleys and throw the situation into deadlock where it has been for several years. It means continued disintegration of Germany if the present German government can offer the people no encouragement on the

RADIO TO BROADCAST ARMISTICE DAY TALK OF WOODROW WILSON

Former President to Discuss Significance of the Day in Address Tonight

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Woodrow Wilson's voice will be heard Saturday night in the far corners of the country.

From his study the former president will address the nation by radio on "The Significance of Armistice Day." He is expected to begin a ten minute talk at 8:28 p. m. eastern time.

Spoken into a microphone, Mr. Wilson's words will be broadcast by the WCAP radio station here on a wave length of 469 meters. They also will be carried over a telephone wire to New York city, amplified there, and distributed by WEAF on a 496 meter wave length. Radio experts believe the message will be heard through receiving sets in all sections of the United States.

The address will probably be followed Sunday by another talk by Mr. Wilson to admirers who will make their annual Armistice day pilgrimage to his S street home. Delegations from a number of cities have made arrangements to march to the former president's residence during the afternoon. He has agreed to greet his visitors from the front steps, and is expected to deliver a brief extemporaneous address. Senator Carter Glass of Virginia, who was a member of Mr. Wilson's cabinet, will act as spokesman for the callers.

STOKES LOSES IN FIVE-YEAR FIGHT TO GAIN DIVORCE

Now Wife, Freed by Jury of Charges Made Against Her, Will Sue for Separation

NEW YORK.—W. E. D. Stokes lost his five year legal battle to divorce his wife, Helen Elwood Stokes, at dusk Friday evening. Out an hour and five minutes, the jury, it was learned, took but one ballot to determine the woman's innocence of the charges made against her.

If Stokes, 73-year-old plaintiff in the divorce action, was in any way affected by the jury's verdict, he did not display his feelings. His face, glued on the jury box into which the twelve men had filed, bore no trace of either dismay or gratitude when the foreman announced the decision.

And, when Mrs. Stokes, against whom more than a score of witnesses had testified, grasped each juror by the hand and thanked them for the verdict, Stokes remained in the seat he had occupied for almost five weeks, and stared blankly at his wife.

Following the verdict, Stokes, aged and alone, stared at his shoe. He has two weeks to perfect an appeal.

Meanwhile, an action filed by Mrs. Stokes for a separation will begin next Monday.

HUNT BUTTER BURGLARS

STEVENS POINT, Wis.—Authorities throughout central Wisconsin are now joined in a united effort to secure and bring to justice the ring of butter burglars who have stolen more than a ton of butter from central Wisconsin creameries within the past several weeks. Portage county authorities have joined in the search, for the latest job of the burglars was to rob the Buena Vista creamery, near here, of 300 pounds of butter.

KELLOGG TO WASHINGTON

ST. PAUL, Minn.—Frank B. Kellogg, recently appointed ambassador to Great Britain, will leave his home here Saturday for Washington, where he will spend several days in conference, it was announced. Mr. Kellogg declined to comment on his visit to the nation's capital.

"On Earth Peace"

was a note in the Christmas Anthem which echoed over Judean hills long ago.

IT WAS A PROPHECY of THE CHRIST'S INFLUENCE

It was not fully appreciated then; and has not, as yet, been approved in some quarters.

BUT, Christian neighborliness, in diplomacy, missions, and charity is today the one hope of world peace.

The Church is the outstanding exponent. Think of world problems in the light of Christian truth—at your Church—TOMORROW. An appropriate Armistice Day activity.

FARM PROBLEM UP TO WHOLE NATION DECLARES LEVITAN

Business Man and Banker Must Aid in Solution Says State Treasurer

BROOKLYN, Wis.—The problem of the farmer is the problem of the business man, the banker and the nation as a whole, State Treasurer Solomon Levitan asserted in an address before the community club here Friday night. Co-operative pools and marketing plans were declared to be the solutions of the present unfavorable agricultural situation.

"The farmer is facing the most serious situation in the history of American agriculture," Mr. Levitan said. "His problem is not alone for him to solve but for the merchant and banker as they are dependent upon the farmer. More than two million people left the farms of the nation in 1922 and it is estimated that three million more will leave in 1923. It looks as if it were almost a stampede for the city. The situation takes on the proportions of a national calamity.

"Why should the farmer be facing bankruptcy? The farmer is producing fully up to the point of the peoples' needs and the consumer is paying all that he should pay, perhaps a little more. Somewhere in between the trouble is found. Evidently the farmer is not getting his fair share of the proceeds from his crops. Senator Borah of Idaho recently pointed out that of the $22,500,000,000 which consumers paid for farm products in 1922, the farmer received only $7,500,000,000. The railroads received $500,000,000 for carrying the crops to market and the remaining $14,500,000,000 went to the commission men, brokers, storage men and distributors, the problem is to eliminate at least a portion of this middle profit.

Mr. Levitan stated that the farmer is moving in the right direction toward solution of his financial difficulties in forming pools and co-operative bodies for disposing of his crops. He further said that this movement is one for the national and state governments to give attention to.

Foolery

AMERICA has put it all over Europe, Asia and Africa again. When the experts came to examine the Santa Barbara man, who is not only several thousand years older than the Neanderthal or Heidelberg gentlemen who have hitherto been farthest south for any European family tree, they discovered that the old boy had a skull nearly an inch thick, the thickest human skull ever known. And that is far from all—investigation revealed that he had a cute little tail, to judge from descriptions something much in the manner of a well-bred fox-terrier. Now let Europe curl up and die, and Mr. Wells take his Outline of History back from the printers and revise it for the sixteenth time. Particularly let him revamp that insulting paragraph saying that human life on the American continent sprang from Asiatic immigration. Not only the California alien land laws but the Santa Barbara skeleton proclaims its falsity.

Indeed, there might now be something to be said for the theory that the tide of conquering humanity was setting westward, instead of eastward, and that instead of America having been populated by an overflow crowd from Asia, Asia got its first glimpse of humanity from a short-tailed member of the Santa Barbara family who wasn't understood at home. From one jawbone and an assorted handful of rounded fragments anthropologists — mostly European—have hypothesized a whole race of ape-men. On the strength of a whole skeleton, with frying-pan and spear complete, to say nothing of a tail, it is by the same token not impossible to deduce a civilization covering the continent. After all, the theory of the geographical origins of man is based upon little more than a chain of likely guesses, the explosion of any one of which might upset the whole load of bricks. There is nothing to prevent a little guessing on this side of the Atlantic—now that we have the Santa Barbara man with his tail and his inch-thick skull to go on with.

Fascinating, that solid ivory cranium! The original bonehead, at least, if not the great-granddaddy of the whole human family! And so close to Hollywood, too—can it be that there is something in the climate that attracts the type?

Times Ahead

THE business outlook is good, according to Jesse L. Livermore, known in Wall Street as the largest individual stock market operator. Livermore says:

"During the past few years the people of our country have become accustomed to living on a higher standard than heretofore, and they are not going to be satisfied to live any other way in the future. The money they spend must necessarily mean a larger purchasing power, and that purchasing power is bound to keep business going at a good volume."

Livermore is right. Thrift—the savings instinct—is a fine thing. But spending makes prosperity. For instance, people have become accustomed to buying autos. This buying makes jobs for the army of people engaged in manufacturing the cars.

In turn, these car makers spend the money they receive, thus keeping busy the employes in other industries. The more we spend for legitimate purposes of production, the more jobs there are—and the more prosperity to be divided among all of us.

Common sense, of course, shows us that when a man makes more and spends more, he also should have more.

We can't have luxuries and necessities unless we create them. It's plain that we have to produce more if we want to have more. Larger production is the price of higher standard of living. And the standard of living is flexible—it moves up or down, accordingly as we produce more commodities or not.

Humanity can't consume more than it produces. The ravens don't bring manna in our generation.

Insurance

HOW much insurance do you carry? In other words, how much do you value your life? There are 120 Americans insured for a million dollars or more apiece. Among the 120 are many movie stars. They are simply betting the insurance companies that they'll die before the examining physicians think they will. A million dollar bet used to be frenzied fiction. Now it's a fact.

Giants

A RACE of people six feet tall, none taller, none shorter, could be produced by proper medical treatment of the endocrine glands—especially the thyroid gland in the neck. This is one of the odd views expressed at the clinical congress of the American College of Surgeons. It should especially interest the Japanese. And if the rest of us don't keep an eye open, the efficiency experts may decide to standardize humanity. The job is well started—in the matter of standardized clothing, food, routine, amusement and thought.

Cruelty

YOU'VE seen animals, packed together in freight cars, being rushed to market—squealing, snorting, bellowing in fright. Nearly 13,000 a year die during shipment and over 10,000 are crippled, according to President Stillman of the American Humane Association. This probably is only a small fraction of the animals that arrive safely at the butcher's. But it starts one thinking about the terrible cruelty of nature, in which life cannot exist except by destroying other life.

Grouped

AT Miami University students are charged a blanket fee of $10 a year, which takes the place of tickets of admission to football games, debates, class dues, and so on. Sensible, this putting things on a budget basis. The day may come when society will be similarly organized, each person paying a certain yearly fee, with "free" admission to the theaters and other places of amusement which in a higher civilization may be run by the community.

Farm

OF interest to farmers and their friends, accordingly passed on: Exports of breadstuffs from our country in September were valued at a trifle under 32 million dollars, compared with about 60 million dollars in September, 1922. Exports of animal products correspondingly jumped, instead of shrinking, rising from 20 millions to 26 millions.

In Ye Olden Times

TEN YEARS AGO TODAY

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Siegel, Ninth and Redfield street, are today celebrating their twenty-eighth wedding anniversary.

More than seventy-five local citizens have pledged themselves to join a local branch of the National Highway association if it is organized here. Organizer E. H. Billings is in the city to start a branch here and has the support of the board of trade.

The Scott-Rose Company will tomorrow complete a deal by which it purchases the entire shoe stock of the Frye Shoe company. The Scott-Rose company will sell the shoe stock in its basement. The company, however, will not engage in the shoe business permanently.

The National Elections company filed articles of incorporation today. The incorporators of the new company are Moncena Dunn, William Doerflinger and Anton Linker. The capital stock is $50,000. The company will deal in election supplies but its chief business will be to secure the adoption of the Dunn coupon ballot throughout Wisconsin and other states.

TWENTY YEARS AGO TODAY

Mr. Sanderson and family of New Amsterdam have moved back to Houston for the winter.

John Nagle has taken a position as brakeman on the Milwaukee road.

After standing for nearly fifty years, harboring in its early days those pioneers whose work blazed the way for the beautiful culture of the Mississippi valley and later of varied history, the Mississippi House at Front and Jay streets is to be torn down. The site is needed for storage room by the Listman Milling company.

Wm. Schwalbe has taken a position as insurance collector with the Borreson and Holley agency.

Captain Fred Schultz of Company B has resigned. First Lieutenant Adolph Weisbecker will no doubt be the choice of the members for captain.

Rev. Father H. J. Untraut of Holy Trinity church was one of the principal speakers at the Catholic convention in Winona last week.

THIRTY YEARS AGO TODAY

Dr. D. S. McArthur who has been visiting and rusticating in western New York is at home and at his office again.

Matt Zimmer, St. Cloud street, has left for Austin, Minn., to brake on the division between that place and Jackson.

D. Wright has been awarded the contract to furnish the music for the Charity ball this year. This will be the first Charity ball in the new Germania.

These people will cycle to West Salem tomorrow: A. J. Walker, Frank Schaller, John Hoban, H. S. Burroughs and Robert Whelpley.

The new wagon bridge across Root river near Hoffman's is nearly completed. This completes a link in the road which has been wanted for many years. It makes a short road to La Crosse for Hokah, Brownsville and other Minnesota farmers.

All Alike Underneath

"If I love-a you

And we each love-a
Both the——"

A sudden rap on the door outside caused the girl to stop her singing most abruptly. She flung the ukulele on the bed and stood for a second in the middle of the room, her brows puckered in thought. Then she went to the door, opened it a crack and peered around the edge of it.

"You want anything?" she asked in her southern drawl.

"Nothing now," the man answered rather severely. "I did want something."

"What was it? Do tell me—maybe I could help you."

An ordinary man would have softened at this, but J. W. Wortham was not an ordinary man at all. He was a professor of Latin in Aniston college and life to him was a very serious matter.

"Quite nothing now, I assure you. Pardon my troubling you."

Martha Foster looked at him for a moment in puzzled bewilderment, then closed the door quickly to shut in her smothered laugh.

"Nutty," she said to herself, "absolutely nutty; but he is handsome."

She perched herself on the edge of the bed and picked up the ukulele again and continued her song. Almost immediately she was interrupted by another knock on the door.

"Oh, it's you again," she remarked, a little annoyed, as she opened the door. "Have you found out what you wanted?"

"May I ask, are you studying—er—music?"

"Yes, I got here night before last, and I'm taking a special course in music. Piano. I play the ukulele just for fun and to keep me from feeling lonesome and homesick."

"You intend playing it every night, I gather?"

"I—I don't know what I intend. Does it bother you? Is your room near mine?"

"I'm J. B. Wortham and have the adjoining apartment. It doesn't exactly bother me except when I'm doing research work."

"Why it helps me to think. I sing all the time."

An expression of despair flashed across the professor's face.

"But if it annoys you," Martha went on.

"I'm sure we can make some amicable arrangement," the doctor finished. "Now, after tonight I'm not going to do any more serious work this week, so suppose you play all you want to; then next week——"

"Put on the soft pedal, eh?" she flashed at him. "All right, it's a go. I think it's awfully nice of you not to make me shut up altogether. You could, you know, since you're a professor and I'm only a student."

"Not at all. I have no wish to be tyrannical."

"A little jazz is just what he needs," the girl muttered as she closed the door on her visitor once more.

For one lovely week Martha refreshed herself to her heart's content with her ukulele and her funny little songs. She sat on the bed of evenings with her feet stuck out in front of her and sang and played by the hour, her musical little body keeping time to the rhythm. Sometimes other girls would drop in and a merry evening would ensue. When Martha's time was up she stoically put her ukulele away and took up a book instead. Everything was so still and quiet she could hardly think, but she forced herself to concentrate.

At the sound of a tap on her door she jumped as if it had been a shot.

"Er—would you mind—I've grown so accustomed to the ukelele I find I can't think without it. The silence is so dense I could almost cut it."

The professor stood before her in the doorway, not a smile on his serious face. Martha gulped and looked at the floor.

"You know you're quite an inspiration to me somehow," he said with equal solemnity. "You have the very qualities that I lack."

"Dr. Wortham, I was just thinking a little jazz would do you lots of good. If you'll help me learn Latin I'll teach you the uke. Oh, will you? I'd love it so."

The light was behind Martha so the professor could not see the mischievous twinkle in her eyes when she said it, nor for her amusement when he answered quite seriously:

"I should be charmed. We could go to the sitting room and take our first lesson now. There's nobody there."

They walked down the hall together, the girl still overcome with astonishment.

"I'm afraid you will find me a very stupid pupil," he remarked.

And he was stupid—every bit of it. They labored together for nearly a month and still he had not learned either to sing or play a chord.

"Caesar's ghosts!" Martha exclaimed one night. "I'm afraid I'm not much of a ukulele teacher."

"I'm afraid I'm not much of a uke pupil," the professor replied, "but it's no disappointment to me because I knew before I began that I wouldn't be."

"What on earth did you ever take it up for then?" the girl asked amazed.

"Because—because," and Doctor Wortham—the cool, collected, self-possessed Latin professor was actually floundering—"because I wanted to be with you and didn't know how to go about it. I'd been puzzling over it for a week when you yourself made the happy suggestion. I knew the minute I saw you that you were the very girl I'd been looking for for years. If you could only feel that way too!"

"Are you—proposing to me?" Martha asked at last.

"As nearly as I can in my clumsy way. I've never cared much about girls, but if you could only overlook my shortcomings and lo—like me a little."

With a quick rush of sympathy Martha put a hand on his arm. She saw him intensely human, lonely, longing for companionship yet not knowing how to get it.

"Why, J. B. W. I'd love to lo—like you a great deal."

"You lovely thing!" he exclaimed as he quite boldly took her in his arms. "I've always prayed that some day some one would be able to see inside me and know that I'm human like all the rest."

WORKING GIRLS' COSTLY DRESS SCORED BY WOMEN OF MEXICO

MEXICO CITY.—Costly raiment for the poor working girl is the target of a campaign just launched by the leaders of the Catholic Women's Syndicates. They claim that the profit-hungry employer insists that his fair or otherwise subordinates be fashionably clad because its a "good business measure." He doesn't, however, give them a dress allowance and, to hold their jobs, many times the senoritas must skimp on the frijoles to buy Tut blouses, silk mosquito net stockings and French heeled pumps. It isn't fair, the reformists claim, and have begun their push without it must be stated, very active co-operation from the oppressed class they hope to benefit.

ARMISTICE DAY MUSICAL SUNDAY EVENING EVENT

Memories of five years ago will be revived in the Armistice day musical and picture program to be given at First Presbyterian church on Sunday evening, when some of the familiar patriotic hymns will be illustrated by a special series of stereopticon views just received from the bureau of visual instruction of the University of Wisconsin. Glimpses of the boys in khaki, in camp and field, may be seen; as well as the familiar lines of returning battalions often observed in the parades along the streets of our port cities.

"My Country 'Tis of Thee," will be given new meaning in the picturesque landscapes and mountain vistas which will open before the worshipers, when they sing "I love thy rocks and rills, thy woods and temple hills." "The Battle Hymn of the Republic" will be visualized in the lines of blue coats of civil war days, as they stood in action amidst the long grass of Gettysburg meadows and in camp "where watch fires gleam." "Keep the Home Fires Burning" will afford opportunity to render an adaptation of war sentiment in terms of these later days of peace. "Tenting on the Old Camp Ground" will seem more realistic with a double quartet of men's voices behind the picture.

Two sacred numbers, in this same manner, will occupy the second part of the evening program. "Jesus, Savior, Pilot Me," with graphic marine views and classic portrayals of the Christ from the Old Masters, will unfold some reverent emotions and rare interpretations of the "Pilot of Galilee." "Lead Kindly Light" will quicken anew the hopes of those yearning hearts looking for those "loved long since and lost awhile." Mrs. J. W. Boyer is the soloist for this last number.

An enlarged chorus now under direction of Mrs. P. L. Cilley, will lead the musical portions of this service, which begins at 7:30 p. m.

START DRIVE FOR ENFORCEMENT OF NEW VEHICLE TAX

Governor Sends Instructions to all Sheriffs in the State to Carry Out Law

MADISON, Wis.—Governor Blaine today took steps for the immediate enforcement of the re-registration provisions of the new motor vehicle tax act, validity of which recently was upheld by the supreme court. The governor dispatched letters to all sheriffs in the state and to State Highway Engineer A. R. Hirst, suggesting steps for enforcement of the act.

Governor Blaine stated in his letters that there are approximately 25,000 trucks in the state which have not been re-registered. He urged sheriffs to check up immediately on non-registered vehicles and inform district attorneys to permit prosecution. Co-operation between the sheriff and county highway commissioners also was suggested to enforce the act.

"I am asking you fully to co-operate with your highway commissioner in enforcing the law," the letter to sheriffs said. "It would give you great assistance if you took the matter up with the several police officers of your county, urging them to report to you every truck that has not been re-registered and every automobile that has not been registered for 1923."

State Highway Engineer Hirst was requested to send communications to county engineers, asking their co-operation in enforcing the motor act. The governor suggested immediate prosecution of all delinquent truck and automobile owners.

"I suggest that in each county those who are delinquent should be reported to the sheriff and district attorney, with a request for prosecution and if they fail to prosecute, then the matter should be called to the attention of the Governor," the letter said.

BADGERS ARE AT DISADVANTAGE IN ILLINI BATTLE

Seriously Handicapped by Losses to its Line and Backfield

ILLINI SQUAD INTACT FROM CHICAGO GAME LAST WEEK

Unpleasantness Over Gerber's Disqualification Disappears

URBANA, Ill.—More seriously handicapped by losses in its line and back-field than at any other time this season, Wisconsin Saturday is to stake its title aspirations against those of Illinois in their crucial game at the Champagne stadium.

The Badgers are at a disadvantage in man power compared to the Illini because of the ineligibility of Gerber, big tackle, and the injury of Schneider, quarterback, and Harris, the plunging halfback. Bentson is likely to fill Gerber's shoes, with Williams, Freshman player of last year, at quarterback. Harris, with an injured knee, may be able to start.

Illini Intact

Illinois has a squad intact from its battle with Chicago last week. The Illini, playing before their fathers on "Dad's day" are counted on to put up an exceptional exhibition of football. The whole team is out to show the dads that they can eliminate Wisconsin and keep a lead for the championship.

The unpleasantness that appeared for a time after the disqualification of Gerber, has largely disappeared. Explanations from Illinois that the information that resulted in the Badger tackle's ineligibility did not come from Urbana, and assurances from Wisconsin that the baseless rumors concerning Illinois players were not started by Wisconsin have served to clear up the situation.

Illinois has a decided edge against the Wisconsin aggregation according to dopesters.

It is expected that 25,000 will witness the game.

ASHLAND DEFEATS SUPERIOR, 17 TO 6 IN FRIDAY CLASH

SUPERIOR, Wis.—Ashland high defeated Superior Central high, 17 to 6 in their annual football clash here Friday.

Superior outshone the visitors in the passing game but otherwise the visitors had a decided advantage. The invaders tore the light Superior line to shreds.

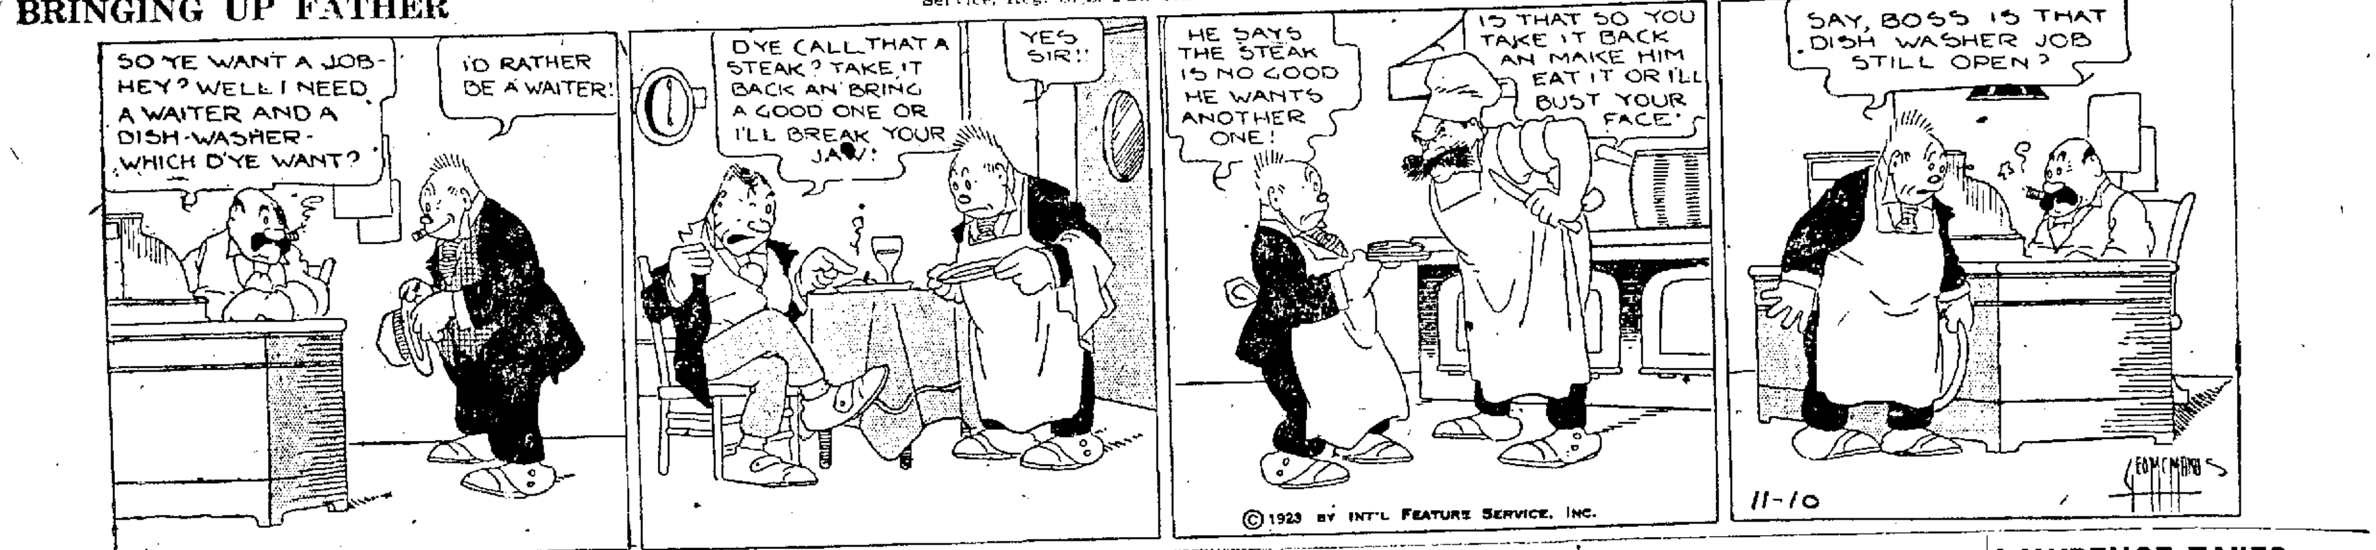

Hell, back-field star, was the outstanding player for Ashland and Captain Dhols and Gurnoe for Superior.

EASTERN FOOTBALL SWINGS INTO FINAL STAGE ON SATURDAY

Princeton-Harvard Clash is Outstanding Feature of the Week

OTHER ENGAGEMENTS PROMISE TO BE EQUALLY THRILLING

No Championship is at Stake Saturday

NEW YORK.—By the Associated Press.—With the annual Harvard-Princeton battle as its outstanding feature, but with many other engagements equally promising in thrills, college ball swings into the final stage of the 1923 season Saturday afternoon.

Princeton-Harvard contest at Palmer memorial stadium which marks the 26th meeting of those universities since their series began in 1877, finds Harvard a slight favorite but no means certain of victory. Each of the elevens has suffered one defeat, Harvard losing to Dartmouth and Princeton losing to Notre Dame.

Interest in the game is as keen as in years the eastern title has hinged on the outcome and a crowd of 55,000 will cram the Princeton horseshoe. No championship is at stake today, however.

Ranking close to the Princeton-Harvard game is the meeting at the Polo grounds of Cornell and Columbia.

Yale at the bowl will have Maryland as its foe and as Maryland succeeded in inflicting upon Pennsylvania its single defeat of the season, a battle bristling with action and one that will test Yale to the limit is looked for.

Other contests on which much attention will be centered are meetings of Penn State and Georgia Tech., Pennsylvania and Lafayette, Syracuse and Boston University and Dartmouth and Brown.

SUPERIOR MEETS ST. OLAF COLLEGE

SUPERIOR, Wis.—With Old Sol beaming his brightest on the largest and most colorful crowd that has ever visited Gates field Superior Normal and St. Olaf college of Northfield, Minn., squared away here Saturday in what was expected to be a thrilling and gruelling gridiron contest. It was the last game of the season for the Normals on their own field.

MRS. SCHNEEBERGER WINS HART PRIZE

Mrs George Schneeberger won the box of candy offered by William Hart to the bowler on the S&H team having the high score. Mrs. Schneeberger had a score of 181.

SPORT BRIEFS

ST. PAUL, Minn.—Jock Malone, middleweight, outpointed Panama Joe Gans, negro, in ten rounds, according to newspapermen. In the preliminaries Al Van Ryan, St. Paul, won from Eddie Morris, Sioux City, and Joe Burch of Milwaukee outpointed Jack Mootchie, Hudson, Wis., news writers said.

YEMENITE JEWS COMPLAIN BRIDES ARE KIDNAPPED

JERUSALEM.—The plight of the Jews of the Yemen, in southwestern Arabia, is graphically described in appeals received by their kinsmen here, in which the former urge that greater facilities be given for the immigration into Palestine of Jews from Yemen to escape persecution at the hands of the natives. Kidnapping of Jewish brides, torture of aged men and women, and the compulsory conversion of Jews to Mohammedanism are among the grievances enumerated in the communications from the Yemenite Jews.

CHILL WEATHER NEED FOR CHEAPER TURKEY

WASHINGTON, D. C. The weather will determine how high turkey prices will be for Thanksgiving poultry experts of the department of agriculture said. If the weather continues warm, producers may decide to hold their turkeys for the Christmas trade, in order to get a better price, leaving the cold storage birds to hold the market, they said. It is estimated there are 3,700 more pounds of turkey in cold storage now than there were at this time last year.

MORE THAN TWO THOUSAND STUDENTS WATCHING BADGER GAME AT ILLINI SATURDAY

MADISON, Wis.—While more than 2,000 students and alumni of the University of Wisconsin are watching the Badger football team do battle with Illinois at Urbana Saturday, hundreds more here will be watching closely detailed returns of the game. The game will be the crucial contest of the season for Wisconsin and will test to the limit the strength of the Ryan machine.

History shows that Wisconsin has been one of Illinois' strongest foes. During the last eight years, records show that Wisconsin has won five games, Illinois, two, and one game resulted in a tie. Three different years the Badgers upset dope entirely and came out with the long end of the score.

Badger followers are not confident of victory today. The loss of Gerber, shifts in the team and injuries since the Minnesota game make the strength of the team uncertain and it remains to be seen how the revised machine will work. At least, it is expected that the winner in the game will deserve victory.

The Badgers will be welcomed back to Madison tomorrow afternoon with fitting ceremonies, win or lose. The old custom, re-established after the Indiana game, of hauling the team from the train to the Badger camp in a wagon, will be brought into use again and students will be on hand to welcome the team.

The probable line-up this afternoon follows:

Wisconsin	Position	Illinois
Irish	L. E.	Roknek
Below (Capt.)	L. T.	Roberts

Oshkosh Normals Overwhelms Milwaukee On Friday, 33 To 0

MILWAUKEE, Wis. — Oshkosh Normal football team continued its triumphant march toward the state championship Friday by crushing Milwaukee Normal 33 to 0, in a game which proved the visitors' right to their claims. Supporters of the Oshkosh team declare it is the best in the Normal school class and yesterday the players displayed a crushing offense and a stubborn, powerful defense.

The local team, which fought the La Crosse Normal, touted as one of the best, to a nothing to nothing draw, could not withstand the attack of the Oshkosh backs, who were supported at every turn by a powerful line.

Williams at left half for the visitors was the outstanding star of the game. Among other thrills he contributed a 90-yard run, only to have one of the fighting Milwaukee players stop him on the three-yard line. However, he registered two touchdowns and aided in touchdowns scored by Schweers, Curtis, and Jerbee.

Mike Zingale was the brightest spot in the Milwaukee team, but never had a chance to really get started.

MICHIGAN MEETS QUANTICO MARINES ON FERRY FIELD

ANN ARBOR, Mich.—Playing their first game with a non-collegiate team since 1903, the University of Michigan football team met the Quantico Marines Saturday on Ferry field. With 1,600 marines in the stands and the Marine band furnishing music, Michigan football followers were treated to one of the most colorful spectacles ever seen on the Wolverine field.

Included among those who will witness the game were Secretary of the Navy Denby, a former Michigan football player, Assistant Secretary Roosevelt, Governor Groesbeck, Senator James Couzens and Henry Ford.

Michigan's team took the field with a record of no defeats for the season, while the Marines had suffered but one reverse, their first game of the season.

CHICAGO, INDIANA RESUME RELATIONS AFTER SOME YEARS

CHICAGO, Ill.—Chicago and Indiana resumed football relations Saturday after a lapse of several years with the Maroons favored to win.

The Chicago team was in poor physical condition as a result of injuries but because of its record so far in the season was considered to have the edge on the Hoosiers, which have showed to disadvantage during the campaign.

OSHKOSH MAN CLEARED OF AUTO TRAGEDY BLAME

OSHKOSH, Wis.—George Daniels, 20 years old, was exonerated by a coroner's jury of responsibility for the death of little Lawrence Baehman, three years old, who was run down by an auto driven by Daniels. That the child met an accidental death was the jury's verdict, reached after the jury was out nearly an hour. It is expected that manslaughter proceedings instituted in municipal court against Daniels will be dismissed as a consequence of the finding.

Cornhuskers Handed Indiana Eleven 14 to 6 Defeat Last Season

LINCOLN, Neb.—Notre Dame, from South Bend, Ind., undefeated on the gridiron thus far this year was prepared and waiting for the opening whistle which would send them against the University of Nebraska football team, which last year handed them a 14 to 6 defeat on the Corn Huskers' field here.

Both Knute Rockne, Notre Dame mentor, and Fred Dawson, leader of the Nebraska team, were confident that their teams would display their best wares, but neither would predict the outcome of the game.

Rockne brought 35 players to the Nebraska city and according to Coach Dawson, all of them "looked sweet."

YOST FIELD HOUSE IS PREPARED FOR DEDICATION TODAY

ANN ARBOR, Mich.—By The Associated Press.—Yost field house, the largest college buildings in the world devoted exclusively to athletics, was prepared for dedication Saturday. Impressive exercises are to attend the opening of this giant gymnasium constructed as a monument to the achievements of Fielding Yost for twenty-three years football coach at the University of Michigan.

With the completion of the Yost field house, athletic facilities are provided for all of the university's athletic needs. Besides housing all offices of the athletic department, the building affords a practice space for the various teams and a removable basket ball floor with space for 12,500 spectators.

LAWRENCE TAKES ON NORTHWESTERN COLLEGE SATURDAY

Blue and White Plays First of Three Games off Home Lot

APPLETON, Wis.—With the 1923 home schedule out of the way, Lawrence college gridmen will Saturday undertake the last lap of the year's program, with three games, all off the home lot, yet to go. Saturday Coach Buck will take his squad to Watertown to tackle Northwestern college in an official Little Five conference tilt. A week later Hamline college, 1922 Minnesota state champions, will be hosts to the Blue, at St. Paul, and on November 24, Lawrence will appear for the last time this year, against Carroll college at Waukesha.

The entire squad escaped the Ripon victory unscathed, and are in pink of shape. Buck is spending the week polishing still more his winning combination, and there is every indication the Blue will have an easy win on Saturday. Coach Buck, however, is taking no chances and will send his usual stellar aggregation into the contest.

OHIO MAKES FIRST APPEARANCE ON STUART FIELD

LAFAYETTE, Ind.—Ohio will make its first appearance on Stuart field since the organization of the Western conference when it meets Purdue here Saturday. Heretofore Purdue has always played the visitor and has generally come out on the short end of the score, but Coach Phelan said that he was confident the Boilermakers will give the Ohioans a stiff battle Saturday if they do not defeat them.

MINERS WIN TITLE AT PLATTEVILLE

PLATTEVILLE.—The Platteville Miners won the championship of Platteville here Friday defeating the local Normal team in the annual contest, 14 to 3. The Miners took advantage of a fumble for their first score and worked the ball across the second time on a clever combination of the passing and running game. The Normals score came as the result of a prefect field goal.

STATE RED CROSS WELL ORGANIZED FOR 1923 DRIVE

Annual Roll Call for Members to Open on Armistice Day

LOCAL CHAPTERS DEVISE NOVEL METHODS OF OPENING CAMPAIGN

Field Representative Visits Cities in Wisconsin

MILWAUKEE, Wis.—The Red Cross in Wisconsin, splendidly organized and prepared, begins its annual roll call for members, Armistice day, November 11.

The entire state enters the campaign in a spirit of enthusiasm, according to Miss Eleanor D. Meyers, field representative of the central division of the Red Cross, in which Wisconsin is grouped with nine other middle western states. Miss Meyers has just completed a tour of the state doing preliminary work for the drive.

Among announcements made by Miss Meyers it appears that each county or chapter has prepared novel ways of beginning the drive for members. La Crosse, she says, is to use newspaper advertising, underwritten by generous citizens; Superior and many other cities will conduct house-to-house canvassing; forty mothers' clubs of Langlade county will shoulder the burden of the drive, co-operating with the Red Cross chapter chairman, Mrs. H. B. Mills, Antigo; in Washburn county mass meetings will be held, under direction of John M. Smith, chairman.

At Stevens Point girls from the sociological department of the state normal school, under direction of Dr. F. A. Southwick are expected to conduct a house-to-house campaign.

Fond du Lac's campaign will be on the order of a family reunion of all lodge, civic, church and club organizations working as a unit. Miss Helene Ahearn is chairman.

Crawford, Richland, Lafayette, Grant and Iowa counties are bonded together for the roll call under one director, Dr. Edgar F. Riley of the Platteville normal school faculty.

At Madison, Miss Grace Hinshaw, Red Cross worker in the Mendota hospital is giving lectures on the work of sick veterans of the late war. Other roll call directors who are doing excellent work include Robert Keyes, La Crosse; Mrs. R. E. St. John, Green Bay; Alfred Sutherland, Fond du Lac; Mrs. B. F. Golmar, Baraboo; Robert Cassel, Grantsburg and Walter Clark, Menomonie.

Sermons will be delivered on the work of the Red Cross in nearly all churches in the state tomorrow.

The campaign will continue until Thanksgiving day.

SCRAMBLE FOR LIFE BELTS AS FERRY HITS BANK

NEW YORK—(By The Associated Press)—More than 100 passengers scrambled for life preservers when the W. R. Hearst, newest and fastest of the municipal ferry boats, struck a mud bank off Governor's island.

The boat tipped so far over that horses attached to vehicles in the forward part of the ferry were knee deep in water.

The boat, however, slid off the mud bank gradually, and within ten minutes had righted itself and proceeded on its way to Brooklyn from the Battery.

ANYWAY, MAY WEARS HIS DIAMOND RING

CHICAGO, (P)—Glenn Hunter, star of "Merton of the Movies," sat in his dressing room at the Blackstone theater and denied, officially, he is engaged to May McAvoy, motion picture actress. Then, unofficially, he admitted that he was going to marry her, and he hoped soon.

Questioned as to the date and place of the coming nuptials, he didn't say when and he didn't say where. But he didn't say "No."

And he admitted he had given Miss McAvoy the large new diamond ring she is wearing on the interesting finger of her left hand.

SHUT OFF BEER SUPPLY

WASHINGTON, (P)—A wholesale raid on breweries in Eastern Pennsylvania to shut off the supply of beer admitted to be flooding a large part of the east was begun Friday by prohibition forces.

Reports to Commissioner Haynes from Philadelphia said twelve breweries were seized early today and that a score would be padlocked before night.

EGG CO-OP PROFITABLE

COUDERAY, Wis.—The co-operative marketing of eggs which was started in the Ojibwa community less than a year ago, is proving far more beneficial than at first expected. The outlook now is that the egg producers shipping their eggs through the co-operative plan will net at least $1,500 more if shipped and sold in the old way.

CAN'T SEIZE BREWERIES

PHILADELPHIA, Pa.—Federal Judge McKennan in a decision held that a search warrant does not authorize prohibition agents to seize the entire plants of breweries, but only intoxicating liquors illegally manufactured and the appurtenances used in their manufacture.

MOVIES

"THREE WISE FOOLS," CASINO

King Vidor has gone his own record as an original motion picture director one better through his direction of his first Goldwyn photoplay, "Three Wise Fools," from Austin Strong's popular stage play. It is at the Casino today. It has the reality in character and in situation, the charm and the feeling for romance and atmosphere which Vidor gets into all of his pictures. True, he had these qualities to work with in the play, but he has enhanced and developed them, giving episodes and sequences which the stage version had necessarily to omit. The picture play is one to cherish; it will repay repeated visits.

"CIRCUS DAYS"

Jackie Coogan is coming to town in "the greatest show on earth!" Jackie hasn't left the films to join a circus, but his latest picture, "Circus Days," which opens at the Majestic theater on Sunday, is a circus picture.

"Circus Days" is a free adaptation of James Otis' world famous story, "Toby Tyler, or Ten Days With a Circus." In it Jackie takes the role of Toby Tyler, who runs away from the farm to join a big tent show. His accidental rise from a vender of peanuts and lemonade to the hit of the circus makes one of the best screen stories that has yet been given to the popular young star.

Several of the country's leading circuses, wintering in California, were used in the making of many of the scenes.

A strong cast appears in support of Jackie. Peaches Jackson, a diminutive child actress, who portrays the role of Jeanette, tiny equestrienne, is to be seen as his leading lady.

Barbara Tennant plays the role of Toby Tyler's widowed mother.

"HUMAN WRECKAGE"

Tonight Mrs. Wallace Reid's picture, "Human Wreckage," will be shown for the last time at the Majestic theater, after having played to capacity audiences all week. Though the picture moves on to carry its message of warning to other parts of the country, it has evidently left in the minds of the people of La Crosse a definite impression of Mrs. Reid's sincerity and bigness of purpose, and a resolution to do all within their power to aid her in blotting out this national evil.

"BROKEN WING"

Ambulances were just as numerous and much busier than the ever present commissary wagon while the Tom Forman company was "on location" filming "The Broken Wing," to be seen at the Rivoli theater Sunday.

Not the least of the several "thrillers" staged for the picture was a revolutionary battle scene between two Mexican armies. The presence of rifles and other arms in large quantities presented opportunities for the settlement of long standing feuds that were not to be overlooked. Half a hundred men forgot directorial orders and with clubbed rifles they waded into their enemies. While no fatalities were reported, nearly one hundred of Forman's prize soldiers were of little use for weeks to come.

CASINO STARTING MONDAY

In "The Common Law," the screen version of the novel by R. W. Chambers, which opens a six days' engagement at the Casino theater on Monday, an old problem is presented in a new way—the problem which often occurs in the life of wealthy young men of whether to choose love or fortune. Beautiful Corinne Griffith in the role of Valerie West, an artist's model, and Conway Tearle, as her employer, are deeply in love with each other. The father threatens to cut his son off without a cent if the latter persists in carrying out his plans to marry his model. In the usual "cut and dried" type of fiction or drama the hero would unhesitatingly renounce all claims to the paternal fortune and choose the course of true love. But it is just here that "The Common Law" displays originality and is more true to life than its predecessors of similar nature, for the hero in this case listens to the paternal admonitions and turns his back upon Mr. Cupid.

CITIZENSHIP COUNCIL NAMED

BISMARCK, N. D.—Governor R. A. Nestos on request of President Calvin Coolidge, has appointed a state counsel of citizenship training for North Dakota. He named the following members: John Knauf, Jamestown; Major George H. Rush, Dr. A. A. Whittemore, and Minnie J. Neilson, Bismarck; Mrs. L. N. Cary, Mandan; President George McFarland, Minot normal, and President Thomas F. Kane, University of North Dakota.

SCHOOLS ASK FOR HALF MILLION IN EMERGENCY FUNDS

University Needs $355,000 and Normal Schools are Short $149,000

WON'T NEED SPECIAL SESSION IF FUNDS ARE TRANSFERRED

No New Activities Started at Any of Higher Schools

MADISON, Wis.—Regents and representatives of the university and normal schools appeared before the state emergency board late Friday afternoon to request additional sums and transfers for carrying on their activities. The normal schools asked in addition to the present available funds $149,085. The university asked for $355,070. The amount asked by the normal schools has been reduced to the minimum and is approximately $150,000 less than the legislature would have authorized. Land and buildings which the legislature had planned to give to the university would have cost $825,000 for this year. Since the emergency board will grant no new buildings or purchase no additional land the amount needed by the university to keep it operating is approximately $325,000 less than the legislature contemplated.

Action by the emergency board for the transfer of these funds is necessary because of the defeat of both of the university and normal school appropriation bills by the last session of the legislature. There is every indication that if these transfers are made by the board a special session of the legislature will be obviated. The sums needed to keep these institutions operating is approximately $590,000 less than the legislature had planned to give them. There will be no new activities added to either the normals and university. The hearing Friday afternoon was held before the emergency board composed of Governor John J. Blaine, Secretary of State Fred R. Zimmerman and State Treasurer Solomon Levitan.

The university was represented at the hearing by President E. A. Birge, Business Manager J. D. Phillips, and Regents H. L. Butler, and Theodore Kronshage. The normal schools were represented by Regents E. J. Dempsey, Oshkosh; R. I. Dugdale, Platteville, and Secretary William Kittle. Attending the hearing was attorney general H. L. Ekern, who will probably be called upon to pass upon some legal phases of the matter and J. B. Bordon, secretary of the state board of public affairs.

Requests for the normal schools were presented by Regent E. J. Dempsey. He said that a gross sum of $149,085 was needed in addition to all available funds to carry on the work of the nine normal schools for the year. The sums needed were as follows:

The largest items included in the normal schools' request follow: text books, $15,244; educational apparatus, $19,000; additional teachers, $18,000 and $41,053; repairs, $15,000; burget expenses, $14,741, and operation funds, $56,321.

MRS. AGNES SWENSON OF RUSHFORD PASSES AWAY

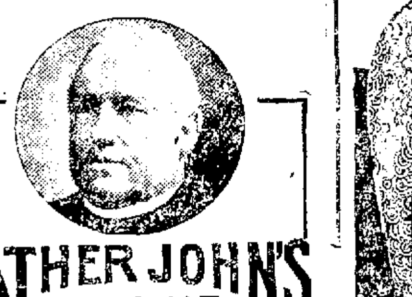

RUSHFORD, Minn.—Mrs. Agnes Swenson, the wife of Swen Swenson, owner of the Swenson garage in this city, died at her home here Thursday night, October 9, after a short illness of but a few days. She was about 37 years of age and is survived by her husband, a son of sixteen years, an infant son of five months; her father and mother, who are Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Reishus of this city; five brothers, Mangus and Benjamin of Tacoma; Ed. Clarence and Leonard of Rushford and the Misses Eva, Esther and Bertha Reishus, also of Rushford.

AUTO FOUND OVER BRIDGE

LEAD, S. D.—The automobile owned and driven by Harry Springer, proprietor of a store here, was found where it had gone over an iron bridge on the Deadwood-Lead road. The car hung balanced, the front end extending out over the creek 20 feet below. The only thing holding it was one rail of the iron fence, which was torn loose and bent out over the creek. It is thought the occupants must have escaped uninjured, although Mr. Springer has not been seen since.

THREE NORMAL CLUBS WILL HOLD MEETINGS MONDAY AT SCHOOL

Student "Y" Will Hold First Meeting; Buskin and Sapphonian to Gather Also

Meetings of three clubs of the La Crosse Normal school will be held Monday afternoon and evening at the school. The first meeting will be that of the student Young Women's Christian association, on Monday afternoon at 4:10 o'clock in the girls' rest room. The meeting is the first one to be called by the reorganized association and it is hoped that all members will be present.

Miss Emma Hanson, president of the organization, has announced the following program for the meeting: vocal solos, Miss Dorothy Frizzell; talk, "Experiences in Jerusalem," Miss Iva Nation, sponsor; Bible stories, Miss Mills; and report of the social service committee, Miss Lucile Dusty.

About three hundred members have signified their intentions of becoming members of the organization. With the meeting Monday, active work of all departments of the "Y" will be commenced.

The Buskin club will hold its regular meeting Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock in the auditorium. The program will be of a miscellaneous nature and will include a reading, "Daddy Long Legs," Miss Lillian Jadock; vocal solo, Clyde Russell, accompanied by Miss Margaret Bennett; parliamentary practice, Prof. D. O. Coate.

Two new members of the society will be initiated at the same time. The president will read the constitution and by-laws.

The Sapphonian Literary society of the school will hold its postponed meeting at 7:30 o'clock in the kindergarten rooms. The following program will be given: parliamentary drill, Miss Stella Gilbertson; piano solo, Miss Elvira Butler; debate, affirmative, Miss Ruth Reudeger; Miss Lillian Lang, and Miss Lois Sherman; negative, Miss Vera Smith; Miss Doris Ahrens, and Miss Irene Remer; vocal solo, Miss Isabelle Peterson, and reading, Miss Geneva Widmer.

estimate the cost of converting Cameron park into a parking place.

Considerable discussion arose over the ordinance advanced for its passage prohibiting parking of three and four-wheeled vehicles in down town alleys. The measure was finally rereferred to the judiciary committee for proposed changes. Alderman Roellig raised the question of exempting delivery trucks from the prohibitive parking measure, in view of the fact that most of the business houses were forced to park in the rear alleys in carrying on their business.

It was suggested by Alderman Mahoney that touring cars alone be excluded from parking privileges and that business cars be permitted to park. The ordinance will come up for passage at the December meeting, no doubt.

Traffic Ordinance

An ordinance was adopted giving to automobiles in the line of traffic on streets the right of way over autos emerging from alleys and also those pulling away from curbs. It is intended that cars intending to move away from curbs are responsible should any collision occur with cars moving along the street.

A Ford roadster was ordered purchased for the electrical inspector, funds for which are to be provided from a surplus in the fire fund.

Alderman Weigel offered a resolution which was adopted providing for the estimated cost and specifications for the erection of a new fire station on West Avenue South. If erected, the two fire companies in the south end of the city will be combined into one.

Abraham Refused License

The application for a pool and billiard license of Mike Abraham, 215 Pearl street, on which the council has deliberated for some time, was again refused by a vote of 13 to 6 Friday night. It has been the policy of the council to refuse licenses to any applicant in the district below the alley between Second and Third street, on Pearl, with a view to cleaning up that section of the city.

A resolution appropriating $300 to the city treasurer for clerical assistance during the rush period of tax collection was adopted.

The council passed a resolution which seeks to force the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railroad to rebuild its Copeland Avenue crossing in passable condition, and to also improve Caledonia street crossing on the north side.

Y. M. C. A. OVERSEAS WORKERS IN REUNION

CHICAGO, Ill.—Workers in the Y. M. C. A. who served overseas during the world war, meet Saturday for a reunion, the outcome of which is expected to be a permanent organization of every Y. M. C. A. outfit that saw service in France.

Acceptances of invitations to the gathering have come from former "Y" workers in a number of states, those in charge of arrangements say.

General Joseph Haller, leader of the Polish armies, has been invited to attend the affair.

WANTS DIVORCE BUT FORGETS WIFE'S NAME

NASHVILLE, Tenn.—A husband, seeking a divorce from his wife, whose name he did not remember, was the situation confronting county officials here Saturday. In the mail they received a letter from an eighty-year-old husband. "I was married to a woman in Nashville in August, 1923," he wrote, "but don't know the name, so please send me the marriage certificate as I want a divorce."

French styles appear in Constantinople almost as soon as they do in Paris.

GIRL PLAYS SAFE ARRANGES ALIMONY BEFORE SHE'S WED

SANTA BARBARA, Cal.—Gertrude Hoffman, 37, of Los Angeles, believed in playing safe. Accordingly when she appeared at the office of the Santa Barbara county clerk for a marriage license to wed Edward C. Becker, 77, also of Los Angeles, she first asked permission to file a paper with the clerk. The clerk opened the paper. It read: "I, Gertrude Hoffman, do hereby agree that in case I should bring suit for divorce or in case Edward C. Becker, my bethrothed ,should bring suit for divorce, and said divorce should be granted, that I will accept the sum of $5,000 as in full of all claims for alimony, attorney fees and court costs and the said Edward C. Becker does hereby agree to pay said sum of $5,000 in full for alimony, attorneys fees and court costs."

The marriage license was issued.

REPARATIONS INQUIRY OF NO AVAIL

problem of external obligations. And as for disintegration, the French are anxious to get reparations, of course, but they can not view with alarm the crumbling of the military power of their perennial foe across the Rhine. The break up of Germany means military security for France but serious economic consequences to the rest of Europe and especially to Great Britain where unemployment is acute. The British have been willing to forego much of their reparations in the hope of reviving German commerce as British shipping carries the German trade. No German exports or imports means a tie up of British shipping and other ill-effects upon British business.

London to Follow U. S.

The British are represented as being lukewarm on the subject of a commission of experts but London will follow the course of the U. S. if Washington accepts Premier Poincare's compromise, London will do likewise.

Discussion of the personnel of the proposed commission has begun. The French would not object to a representation of at least three from each country with an economist, a banker and a business man in the delegation. Distrust of bankers has been expressed by Premier Poincare from time to time because he says they are interested in reducing Germany's debt solely in order to float a loan on terms more favorable to themselves with the investment public. The idea that the commissioners should be disinterested is beginning to be urged, therefore. The process of their selection will be somewhat roundabout. The reparations commission which a creature of the Versailles treaty will appoint the experts. As for the U. S. Major John Logan is the unofficial member of the reparations commission, he represents the U. S. government in the sense that he receives instructions from the Department of State but he does not vote at any meetings of the reparations commission He would actually name the American delegates but no doubt would act upon the advice and instruction of the administration in Washington. The delegates would not represent the American government technically at all but they would sit with delegates who represented other governments and to all intents and purposes their acts would be clothed with a governmental influence though they would still be unofficial persons acting in a private capacity.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill.—Charges that J. S. Alexander, drug store proprietor, not only sold gin to high school students, but employed high school boys of "advertise" his place were made to police. Alexander was arrested.

Young girls, scarcely old enough to be out at night, often accompanied boys in their quest for liquor at Alexander's according to one of the complainants, the police said.

HOLD UP PAYMASTER OF DES MOINES MINE

DES MOINES, Ia.—Bandits Saturday held up the paymaster of the Carlson Coal company, the mines of which are located just outside the city limits, and escaped with approximately $10,000. The company was preparing to pay out the money to its employes when the bandits entered the mine office. They fled in an automobile.

LONDON ROARS WELCOME TO DAVID LLOYD GEORGE

SOUTHAMPTON, Eng.—By The Associated Press. — David Lloyd George was given a noisy reception when he appeared Friday afternoon on the deck of the liner Majestic, which brought him home from his American visit.

Lloyd George looked over the imposing array of journalists and remarked: "It's like the other side."

WEATHER OUTLOOK

WASHINGTON.—Weather outlook for the week beginning Monday:

Region of the Great Lakes—Fair at beginning followed by unsettled and rains, possibly snows, over north portion after Monday and fair again after Thursday, normal temperature.

Upper Mississippi and lower Missouri valleys—Unsettled with probably rains over south and rains or snows over northern portion first part and fair thereafter. Moderate temperature first part, colder thereafter.

TOWN AIDS TURKEY RAISERS

DUNN CENTER, N. D.—The chamber of commerce has organized a bureau for the marketing of turkeys, to be of assistance to those farmers in this section who make a business of raising the big birds for market. The bureau will keep close track of market prices at various market centers and will be in position to advise shippers at all times.

SAWYER FATALLY INJURED

ASHLAND, Wis.—Lawrence X. Venark, head sawyer at the Schroeder Lumber company mill, was fatally wounded Friday when a log became loose from the carriage and crushed him, breaking ten ribs and internal injuries which caused his death two hours later. Venark leaves a widow and his parents and several brothers and sisters.

Feminine Mechanical Geniuses

Women's inability to understand machinery, or rather the supposition that women do not understand mechanical theory and practice, has been refuted in the last decade. A survey of the patent office at Washington reveals that among invention and discoveries attributed to women are an internal combustion engine and a block signal system.

The late Paul Rainey took the first important moving pictures of wild life.

SPRANGER STORY OF MURDER CONFIRMED BY DIVORCED WIFE

Declares Husband Had Told Her of Slaying of Bartender at Park Falls 13 Years Ago

FERGUS FALLS, Minn.—Mrs. H. Winter of Orwell, near here, divorced wife of Herman Spranger, who is alleged to have confessed his knowledge of a murder near Park Falls, Wis., thirteen years ago, in a sworn statement here Saturday said that her former husband had told her of the killing at that time.

Spranger, it is alleged, made his statements to Kenosha county officials at Kenosha, Wis., while on a sick-bed several weeks ago in which he said he had full knowledge of the slaying of a bartender named Francis near Park Falls in 1910. Unable to speak fluently because of his critical condition, Spranger could give Wisconsin officials but a meager report of the killing at that time.

In her statement today Mrs. Winter said that her former husband had told her that "he had finished a bartender so he would never speak another word," and said that if she ever would mention the fact he would kill her and the children. She further stated that she did not learn the bartender's name, except that his christian name was "Francis."

Mrs. Winter said that Spranger had visited a roadhouse near Park Falls in February, 1910; that he went on a Saturday night and his team came home alone Sunday. He followed later, she continued and was under the influence of liquor. She also said that he was in a battered condition and his clothes were smeared with blood.

WINONA BEATS STOUT

MENOMONIE, Wis.—St. Mary's college of Winona defeated Stout institute, 33 to 7, here Friday. Stout's lone touchdown came as the result of a long forward pass.

The Alberta-Saskatchewan wheat crop for 1923 was estimated at 160,000,000 bushels.

RESIGNED BECAUSE HE WANTED TO COME HOME SAYS HARVEY

Retiring Ambassador to Britain Has Nothing to Say About Politics

NEW YORK.—With the conviction that he has accomplished all his tasks abroad—had "wiped the slate clean," as he expressed it—George Harvey, retiring American ambassador to the court of St. James,returned home late Friday on the Aquitania, hungry for the home cooking of his aunt, Hannah Martin, who lives in Peacham, Vt.

Mr. Harvey was his typical self to reporters who interviewed him coming up the bay—jovial one minute, sarcastically humorous the next, and finally saying what was chiefly on his mind with unmistakable seriousness

He retired, he said, because he wanted to come, but he would not say whether he would aid any candidate in the 1924 presidential campaign. For himself he was through with public offices. As before he went abroad he was still opposed to the United States entering the league of nations and any interpretation that President Coolidge and Secretary Hughes are working to that end now is, in his opinion, erroneous.

NO RIGHT TO KEEP HIM IS DUTCH STAND

master Friday sent an urgent request to Berlin for troops, but Chancellor Stresemann refused to comply.

Blessing in Disguise

BERLIN. — By The Associated Press.—Chancellor Stresemann and other government leaders give evidence of satisfaction over the outcome of the Munich putsch. They are inclined to view it as a blessing in disguise in that it definitely disposes of Ludendorff and Hitler as further sources of reactionary menace.

The chancellor believes that the swiftly liquidated insurrection has been a valuable asset to Germany abroad, demonstrating even Bavaria's determination to defend the German republic against attacks from within.

That a militarist of the "mailed fist" variety typified by General Ludendorff should permit himself to be led away as a culprit implicated in a miniature beer hall revolution, alternately provokes amusement and disgust in official and political quarters, while the military leaders who were formerly associated with him on the German general staff are inclined to give him their sympathy.

May Face Treason Charge

Opinion here holds that Ludendorff is guilty of high treason under which he is answerable to the special court established for the defense of the republic. In this case he would face a severe prison sentence, or even the death penalty.

A long official statement has come out of Munich designed to convince the public that Dr. Von Kahr, General Von Lussow and other Bavarian officials entered into the plans of the Hitlerites only under duress.

"They were compelled at the point of a pistol to co-operate," says the statement, "and they gave the assurances required of them because they were convinced that only united action would secure the maintenance of Bavarian state authority. Their assent apparently was given with the object of regaining their freedom of action.

Hitler Escapes

BERLIN.—The whereabouts of Adolph Hitler is unknown here, but General Ludendorff has been released after pledging his word that he would take no further part in the revolt. The disarmament of the nationalists had almost been completed late last night.

It is believed possible that Adolph Hitler, who was reported to have escaped from the Bavarian authorities has sought refuge east of Munich with several hundred of his nationalist followers.

Ludendorff Free!

PARIS.—A Havas dispatch from Berlin Saturday morning says the hearing of General Ludendorff before the attorney general of the reich now is in progress, according to Munich advices received by the German people's party.

(The foregoing conflicts with other advices stating that General Ludendorff has been released on parole.)

COLLECT $34,000 DUTY ON CARGO OF WHEAT

SUPERIOR, Wis.—Custom duties on a cargo of wheat and a cargo of screenings, which arrived at the Globe elevator from Fort William, Friday, amounted to $34,240.90, the largest sum ever collected in Superior in one day, officials at the customs office said. The cargo of wheat contained 112,000 bushels, which brought thirty cents a bushel in duty, and the remainder of the sum was received from the cargo of screenings, consisted of 2,140 tons.

APPROVE AVIATION FIELD LEVY

HIBBING, Minn.—Hibbing won a sweeping victory at the Virginia meeting of representatives from all parts of the county to discuss the county board levy for next year. The levy of $31,600 for an aviation field here was unanimously approved. At first there was considerable opposition to the aviation field item but after the matter had been thoroughly discussed the vote in its favor was unanimous.

REAL ESTATE TRANSFERS

The following deeds have been recorded with Register of Deeds, Wachsmann:

BANK CLOSES

MADISON, Wis. — Announcement of voluntary liquidation of the Farmers' and Citizens' State bank of Lancaster was made by State Bank Commissioner Dwight Parker Saturday. The stock of the bank has been sold to the Union State bank of Lancaster. The volume of business of the institution was too small to make it a paying organization, a statement by the bank commissioner said. The bank was capitalized at $25,000 with total footings at the last bank call of $224,000.

STATE TO ENFORCE RULES REQUIRING LABELS ON CHEESE

Market Bureau at Loss to Understand Why Producers Won't Mark Superior Cheese

MADISON, Wis. — Jobbers and dealers in high-grade Wisconsin cheese who fail to place the so-called Fancy Stamp on cheese of superior make, may face prosecution by the state under the provisions of the grading law, according to Math. Michels, state division of markets, here.

Why cheese dealers should prefer not to mark various grades of Wisconsin cheese is a mystery which no one at the state department of agriculture seems able to fathom. There is, according to Mr. Michels, a persistent practice on the part of dealers to get as far as possible away from marking cheese products.

At a meeting in Milwaukee several months ago, dealers asked the division of markets not to force them to use the fancy label, no matter how good the product, Mr. Michels states.

During a recent inspection trip in the state, Mr. Michels claims to have found numerous instances where dealers and jobbers were not marking superior cheese. This discovery has led to the decision of the division to enforce the provisions of the act with greater rigor.

NORMAL FACULTY MEMBERS AT THE MILWAUKEE MEET

Five members of the faculty of the La Crosse Normal school attended the convention of the Wisconsin State teachers that was held in Milwaukee this week. President F. A. Cotton left last week for Milwaukee and the other members left this week. Those that attended were Prof. F. H. Rolfe, Prof. A. H. Sanford, Prof. W. J. Wittich, and Prof. L. K. Adkins.

HUNG TO BALLOON ROPES SOLDIER FALLS TO DEATH

MITCHELL FIELD, N. Y.—Private Aage Rasmussen was killed at the army and navy circus Saturday when he clung to the drag lines of the dirigible, TC-2, after she was released by her ground crew, and lost his grip after being lifted in the air.

OBITUARY

MISS JENNIE STIMBLE

La Crosse has again been called upon to mourn the death of one of her old and highly respected citizens. Miss Jennie Stimble, for twenty-six years, a beloved teacher in the public schools of La Crosse, died at the home of her sister, Mrs. C. F. Aurrsch, in Hastings, Minn., on Sunday, November 4th.

Miss Stimble has been in poor health for the past two years and for a year has been cared for at the home of her sister. Eight years ago she retired and purchased a house in Onalaska, Wis., where she made her home until a year ago, the place still remaining in her possession at the time of her death.

Miss Jennie Stimble was born in Canterbury, N. Y., February 12th, 1844. She moved with her parents to Viroqua, Wis., in 1856, where she lived until young womanhood. She began her teaching career in the rural schools of the neighborhood, later graduating from the Winona Normal school and rounding out her life work as a teacher by her twenty-six years of service in this city. Her ability as a teacher was recognized by all who knew anything of her work. In 1894 she united with St. Paul's Universalist church and for many years was a devoted member and very active in all lines of church endeavor. Her remains were brought to Viroqua, November 7th, for burial in the family lot. She leaves two sisters to mourn her death.

REDUCE FARM COSTS TO BOOST PROFITS ADVOCATES BADGER

Urges Definite Program be Adopted by Agricultural Engineers

CHICAGO, Ill.—Reduction in production costs by cutting labor items was urged by Professor E. R. Jones of the Wisconsin College of Agriculture, speaking Saturday before the national conference on agricultural engineering here. While hopeful that profits in farming may be greatly increased through better marketing methods, engineers should set out on a definite program to reduce agricultural costs, Mr. Jones said.

"Whether we reclaim lazy acres, build for less money or secure equipment which works better and lasts longer, we reduce the cost of production," Professor Jones stated. "Let the farmer increase his profits by increasing his selling price through better marketing methods and by reducing costs. By draining the wet acre, and shooting the offending stump, we make cultivation easier, cost less and production greater.

"The farm water supply, the lighting plant, good heating of the farm home, better sanitation and farm conveniences generally make the farm a more livable place, keep the boys and girls on the farm, attract workers from the city, and reduce the cost of labor. These conveniences are not luxuries. They are necessities that are helping to solve the farm problems today."

Professor Jones urged that farmers be educated in wise selection of farm machinery and in properly keeping and housing such machinery.

COTTON FIRM FAILS

NEW ORLEANS, La.—The failure of the important spot cotton firm of W. J. Davis & Company, which maintains offices here and in many Mississippi towns, was announced on the Cotton exchange floor Saturday.

CHECK FORGER IS SOUGHT BY LOCAL POLICE OFFICERS

Police officers are seeking the whereabouts of L. H. Rutledge, aged 25, said to be known at a bank here, passed a bogus draft at the Security bank for the amount of $75.

Rutledge claimed to be working for the International correspondence schools, Scranton, Pa. He appeared at the teller's window with the draft, and because he was known to the bank employe, it is said, the draft was honored.

It was reported that Rutledge passed two bad checks in Winona. He is also being sought by Winona police.

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET

NEW YORK—Heavy buying of Southern Railway, which eventually created a better inquiry for the other low-priced rails, was the only feature on Saturday's brief session of the stock market. Considerable irregularity developed in the general list with fluctuations in the active issues limited to a point or so. Advances of 2 to 3¼ points in Liggitt and Myers, Sloss-Sheffield Steel, Hartman Corporation, Davison Chemical, Van Raalte Silk, Congoleum and National Cloak and Suit common and preferred were counteracted by a drop of 7½ points in Fisher Body and losses of 2 to 2½ points in Corn Products, Foundation Company, American Ice and General American Tank. The closing was irregular. Sales approximated 500,000 shares.

CHICAGO GRAIN MARKET

CHICAGO, Ill.—With foreign rates falling, new setbacks in the price of wheat took place Saturday as soon as business began. The market then quickly descended to below any recent level. In some cases, nearly two cents a bushel was clipped from values before the decline was checked. The opening, which ranged from ⅛ to ¾c lower, with December $1.04½ to $1.05 and May $1.10 to $1.10⅛, was followed by a drop to $1.03⅜ for December, and then by a slight recovery.

Temporarily, the fact that Winnipeg prices exhibited more strength than prices here did, helped to steady the Chicago market, but increased selling in the last half hour, caused fresh weakness. The close was heavy, 1⅛ to 2¼c net lower, December $1.03 to $1.03¼, and May $1.08¼ to ⅜ to $1.08⅜.

Corn and oats were easier in sympathy with wheat. After opening unchanged to ⅝c lower, December 76¾ to 77c, corn underwent a moderate sag all around.

Predictions of larger receipts next week had bearish influence in the subsequent trade. Closing prices were weak, 1 to 1⅝c net lower, December 75½ to 75⅝c.

Oats started a shade to ⅜c off. December 42c. Later the market showed some additional loss.

Provisions reflected the weakness of grain.

J. E. GRUBER, WILTON EDITOR, IS BURIED AT SPARTA THURSDAY

SPARTA, Wis.—Funeral services for the late John E. Gruber, editor of the Wilton Herald, were held at the Sparta Masonic Temple Thursday afternoon at two o'clock. The Masonic bodies escorted the body to Woodlawn cemetery, where the Masonic Committal service was held. Mr. Gruber died Tuesday morning at St. Mary's hospital in Sparta. He has been in poor health for some time. Mr. Gruber had published the Wilton Herald for twenty eight years.

Mrs. Hulbert passed away in St. Mary's hospital Wednesday evening of last week, at the age of eighty-seven years. She was formerly Miss Eliza Jane Cram, and was born in Burlington, Vt. Oct. 29, 1836. With her parents she came to Wisconsin in 1856. They located at the village of Neshonoc, which was then near West Salem's present site. Later, they moved to a farm in Burns township in La Crosse county. In 1856, she was united in marriage to Ira Hulbert, and they lived on a farm in Burns until 1884, when they moved to Sparta. A son Ira S. Hulbert died in 1918, and her husband died in 1911. Mrs. Hulbert is survived by three children, Mrs. Clara Hemstock of Sparta, Mr. F. A. Hulbert of Barron, Wis.; and Mrs. Lillie Streeten of Bangor. There are sixteen grandchildren and ten great grand children.

Funeral services were held at the home of her daughter, Mrs. David Hemstock, West Main Street, Rev. Clarence E. Weed, pastor of the M. E. Church being the officiating clergyman. Interment was made in the cemetery at Burns. A large number of relatives and friends from out of town were present at the funeral services.

FOURTH CITY MAIL CARRIER ALLOWED SPARTA POSTOFFICE

SPARTA, Wis.—Sparta is to have its fourth city mail carrier. Postmaster John Zahrte has been successful in getting the extra carrier that the city might have better mail service, and has been informed by the post office department at Washington that he has been given the authority to appoint a fourth carrier here. Harry C. Longwell, the present parcel post carrier has been given the appointment. He will begin delivering mail, on Friday, Nov. 16. In the mean time, it will be necessary to redistrict the city and lay out new routes, making four districts, instead of three. This change will be confusing, both for clerks and carriers for a time, but after they become familiar with the new state of affairs, the city mail service should be greatly improved. Only the first class mail and daily papers will be distributed on the first trip, thus getting the important mail to the patrons at the earliest possible time, and the left overs will be sent out on the second delivery.

YOUTH SENTENCED TO THIRTY DAYS FOR PELT THEFT

Bert Isbell, 17 years old, was sentenced to 30 days in the county jail by County Judge Brindley, on Isbells' plea of guilty to a charge of stealing pelts valued at $15. The pelts were the property of F. Abbott, of the town of Farmington.

GINGHAM IN HANKIES

White linen handkerchiefs, checked with color in gingham patterns are very smart now.

RETAILERS WILL HAVE A DINNER MONDAY EVENING

Matters of Great Interest to Merchants to be Discussed at the Feed

Chairman George E. Krause of the retail merchants' bureau of the Chamber of Commerce announced this morning that the regular monthly dinner of the retailers will be held at the Chamber of Commerce on Monday, November 12, at 6:15 p. m.

A short, snappy program in which every retailer is vitally interested will be brought up and thrashed out. Reports will be submitted by different committees showing what they have done. Indications are from the number of reservations that the dinner Monday night will be the largest meeting of retailers held in years.

Chairman Krause also called attention to the fact that Monday is being observed throughout the country as Armistice day and merchants in La Crosse are requested to close until 12 o'clock noon and co-operate with the Legion in helping to carry out their plans.

Postpone Weekly Dinner

President P. J. Yerly of the Chamber of Commerce stated that the office had exhausted every effort to find a speaker suitable to the entire membership for the weekly luncheon scheduled to be held on Wednesday, November 14.

A speaker had been engaged who cancelled at the last minute and the office had sent dozens of telegrams to some of the biggest men in America without result; so rather than disappoint the members by not having a good speaker, the luncheon has been postponed until the following week.

The organization secured a headliner for the luncheon on Wednesday November 21. Full details will be given the membership about this speaker in the near future.

MOOSE KILLED BY LOCAL HUNTERS NOW AT JEHLEN'S

Two moose, which are on exhibition in front of Jehlen's meat market, were killed by Dr. J. A. L. Bradfield and Dr. R. M. I. Kinnear at Bachewand Bay, Ontario. In all they succeeded in killing four moose and one deer. R. E. Andrews of Escanaba, Mich., was the host of the party.

The two moose at Jehlen's have been attracting the attention of crowds of passers-by who declare them to be excellent specimens of big game. As one man expressed it, "Those are the ones you see in the movies." One moose weighs over 700 pounds and the other 400 pounds.

CHINESE MOTIFS

Chinese coats, Chinese lines, Chinese blue and Chinese embroideries are the noticeable features of the day. Even pagoda hats have made their appearance at some of the fashionable resorts.

JESSE JAMES' DESCENDANT—WALKING WATER—BLUENOSE WINS—WASHINGTON ELM COLLAPSES

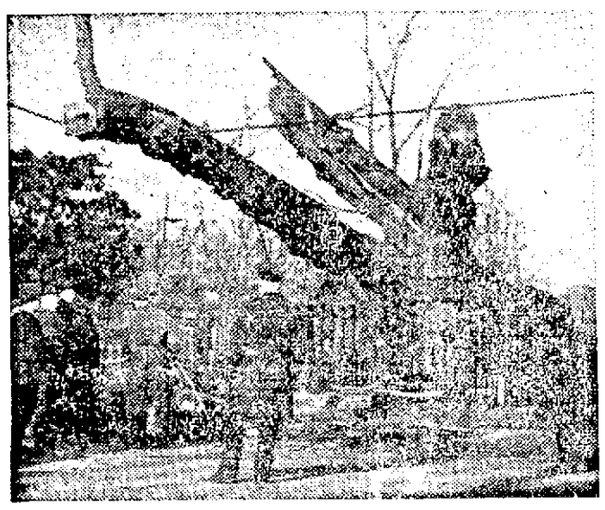

LONG LIVE THE QUEEN!—Before her rich and poor alike bowed low in homage. Madeline Englehart ruled the realm—for a few days at least. She was queen of the fall festival in Kenosha, Wis. She was crowned after a spirited contest with more than 50 other pretty girls.

A WEALTH OF FLOWERS—Mrs. Calvin Coolidge (left) was the first guest of Secretary of Agriculture Wallace and his wife, shown with her, at the department's chrysanthemum show in the capital.

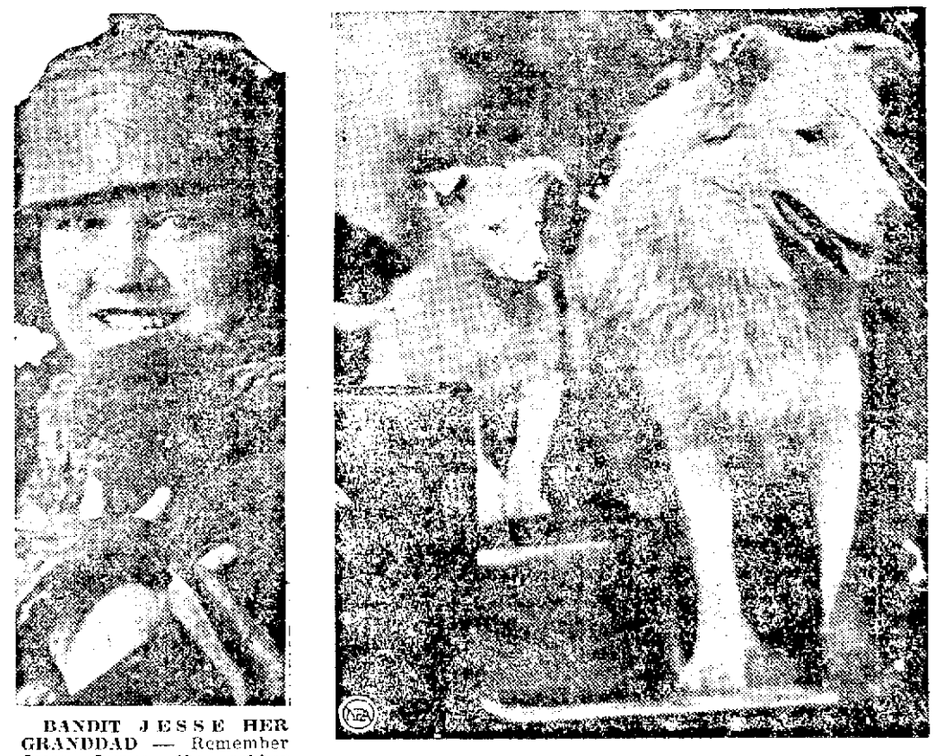

A PRACTICAL LESSON—Automobile accidents are re-enacted in Municipal Judge E. E. Zesiger's court in Akron, O., with a couple of toy cars. The judge's investment at the toy counter has saved him many hours of time in getting to the bottom of traffic cases, he says. Here's the judge (on the right) and Police Prosecutor Worth A. Bailey and a traffic officer trying to figure out just how one crash occurred.

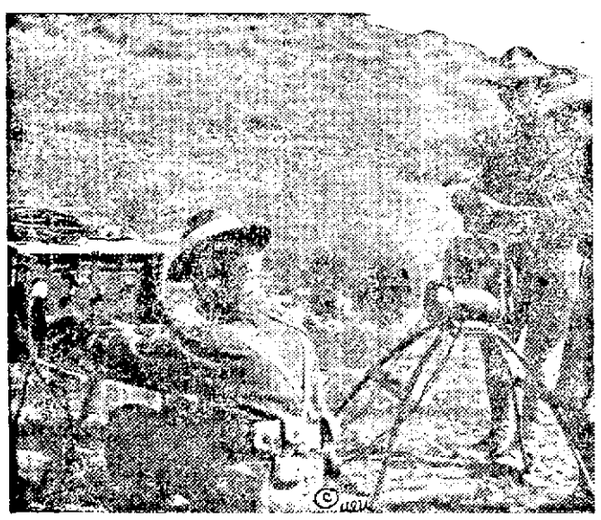

THE END—The famous Washington elm, in Cambridge, Mass., under which George Washington took the oath to command the American army, has fallen. Photo shows it across a high tension wire. The tree will be chopped up, and a piece given each state.

A GRIM REMINDER—Henry P. Potter, motorcycle policeman, was rated as one of the most daring cyclists in the west, back in 1912. But his bravado cost him his life. He was killed in a race while his mother and sister in the stands looked on. Today a single marker covers the grave where he and his father are buried in Mt. Olivet cemetery, Salt Lake City. And under the inscription for the son is carved a motorcycle of the racing type.

EIGHT TRAINLOADS OF PROVISIONS—They certainly know how to conserve room on this gigantic tow operating along the Mississippi river. This government steamer, with its string of barges, is carrying enough merchandise to fill 100 freight cars. And ordinarily, that would make eight good sized trains. The picture was taken at Memphis, Tenn.

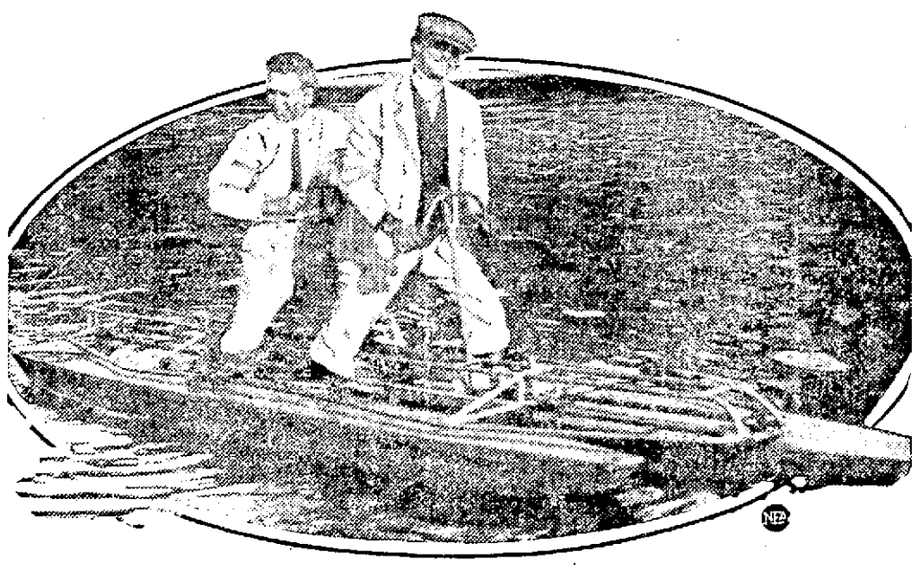

ARMY FIELD SETS ARE COMPACT—Here's efficiency in radio. It's a radio receiving and transmitting set as large as a popular receiver alone. That is how far the United States Army Signal Corps has advanced in this science. The set was used recently in army maneuvers in Texas. Notice the hand generator at the right.

BUDDING BLOSSOM—That all tempting flowers are not of hothouse origin is evidenced by this picture of Elizabeth Huff, Witchita Falls, Tex., wearing a costume in which she appeared recently.

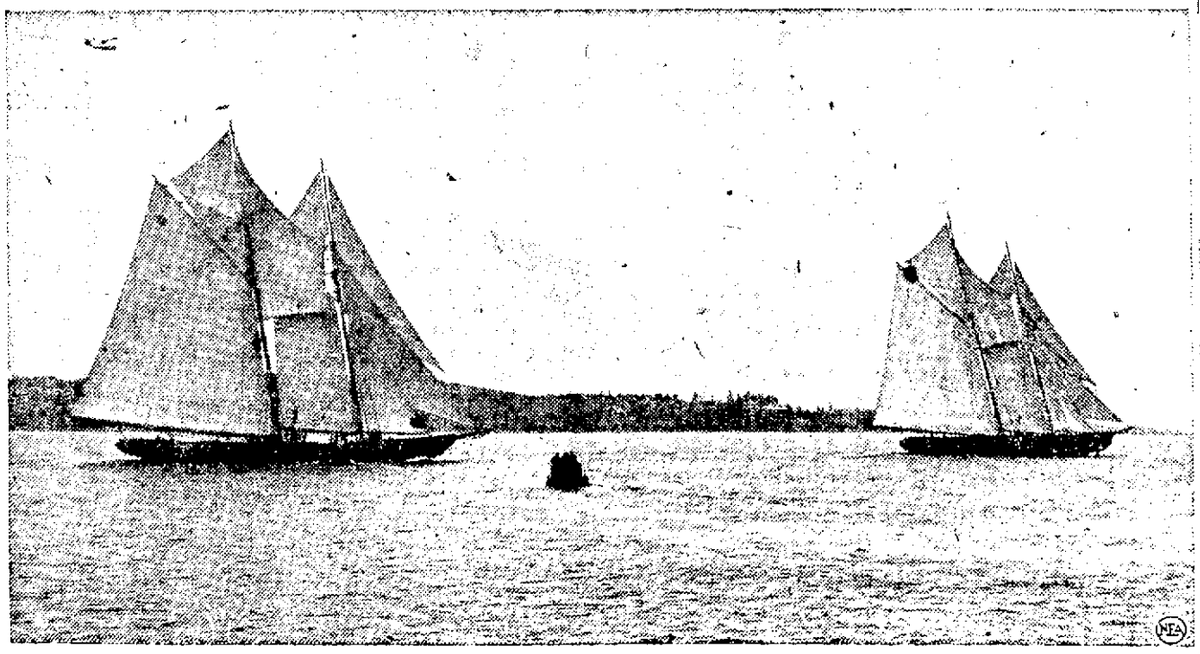

AMAZING!— Inoculation against smallpox is nothing new. Why, it was common in 300 B. C., according to Dr. G. W. McCoy, director of the hygienic laboratory of the United States Public Health Service. He's busy now pointing out many diseases that can be fought with vaccines and serums.

BANDIT JESSE HER GRANDDAD — Remember Jesse James, the robber bold? Well, just a moment. Meet his granddaughter, Josephine Frances James. She's a private secretary in Kenosha, Wis. Her father, Jesse James, Jr., is a retired lawyer.

MOVES TO WHITE HOUSE—Canine aristocracy is sending another ambassador to President Coolidge's court. He's Island White Oshkosh (right), who'll romp about the executive grounds with Peter Pan and Paul Pry. The Island White Collie Kennels of Oshkosh, Wis., have presented him to the president. His little sister's with him in the picture.

AND NOW THEY WALK ON WATER—Strolling across San Francisco Bay! Sounds incredible, to be sure. Yet D. F. Sheldon (left), of Ventura, Calif., and Rev. W. W. Reilly of Weatherville, Calif., are doing it here. Walking tandem in water skis invented by Sheldon's brother, A. N. Sheldon, Ventura rancher, the two men made the trip from shore to shore. Now they're getting ready to hike across the English Channel.

Ford
THE UNIVERSAL CAR

The Ford Car In Business

The Ford car leads everywhere in business. The One-ton Truck and the Light Delivery Car are used by hundreds of thousands of farmers and merchants for trucking and delivering merchandise.

The Runabout and the Coupe are used everywhere by traveling salesmen. Wherever the use is hard and constant and demands absolute dependability, you will find Ford cars in service.

The big national distributors of merchandise have used Fords by the thousands for many years. Here in La Crosse many concerns operate large fleets of Fords. The W. R. Montague Co. who have used Fords for many years have purchased nine new Fords from us within the last three months.

These large business concerns keep accurate records of the cost and the performance of all their automobiles. Yet they do not buy Ford cars only because Fords are lowest in first cost and in upkeep. But because Fords are dependable. Because Fords keep going day after day and year after year. Because Ford simplicity of design makes repairs easy. And because the Ford organization of 12,000 dealers and service stations stands ready to serve Ford owners at any time.

The price now is lower than ever. The quality now is higher than ever.
